OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

2. [REDACTED] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING

I accompanied [REDACTED] OER, and Jim Lilley, NIO, to a briefing of Pat Holt, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Dick Moose, on the Committee staff, Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, and Jack Sullivan, on the House International Relations Committee staff, on the People's Republic of China. They requested copies of the last four editions of Trends in Communist Media, which [REDACTED] OCI, will arrange to forward.

3. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Spoke with Ms. Nanette

Blanton, OMB, in response to Jim Oliver's, OMB, request for our views and comments on the Richardson Task Force proposed "Foreign Payments Disclosure Act." While noting that the proposed bill did not appear to adversely affect the Agency, I pointed out three specific sentences in the bill where a few additional words could be inserted in order to make even clearer the intent behind the bill and to afford additional protection against the Agency's being somehow covered by a strained reading of the language. A formal views letter will be forwarded to OMB on this subject early next week.

4. [REDACTED] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING Called

George Murphy, Executive Director, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, to set up a meeting on a recent Soviet nuclear event. Murphy said that with Congress' return next week, he would not be able to meet with us then, but would appreciate a briefing tomorrow, Saturday. Arrangements were made for [REDACTED] OSI, to brief Murphy.
